As meticulous with as spreadsheet as he is supremely comfortable being on top of all the finest nuances of legal detail, it is his unerring focus on investigating the background details of claims in the most thorough and meticulous fashion that ensures Justin Smith stands out. Justin's ability to make sure nothing's hidden is an essential part of our team's approach to class actions.

Justin is a dedicated lawyer with a thriving class action practice, focusing on competition and securities class actions. He has represented clients at all levels of Ontario and Federal courts, and at the Supreme Court of Canada. Justin joined Strosberg Wingfield Sasso LLP in 2016 and was called to the bar in 2018 after completing his articles with the firm. Holding law degrees from both Canadian and American law schools, Justin combines a strong academic background with practical expertise. Before law school, he provided litigation support to a highly regarded competition and class action defence practice.
